

Value-Based Care in the COVID-19 Era: Current Impact and Future Health Care Resilience

Wednesday, June 10th 12:30 – 2:30 pm ET

Meeting Objectives

- Describe how health care organizations are leveraging value-based capabilities to implement COVID-19 containment strategies and ensure continuity of care for patients.
- Explore policy actions to support organizations' development of value-based care capabilities and encourage greater participation in value-based payment models.

12:30 pm Welcome & Overview: The Role of Value-Based Care during COVID-19

- Mark McClellan, Duke-Margolis Center for Health Policy
- Andy Slavitt, United States of Care

12:40 pm Fireside Chat

- Seema Verma, Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services
- Mark McClellan, Duke-Margolis Center for Health Policy
- Andy Slavitt, United States of Care

1:00 pm Containment and Care in the COVID-19 Era: The Role of Value-Based Care

Session Objective: Discuss examples of COVID-19 containment strategies and care improvement strategies from organizations engaged in value-based care.

- Griffin Myers, Oak Street Health
- Tim Lash, Gary and Mary West PACE
- Ryan Knopp, Stonecreek Family Physicians
- Meena Seshamani, MedStar Health

1:45 pm Fireside Chat

- Brad Smith, Center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovation
- Mark McClellan, Duke-Margolis Center for Health Policy
- Andy Slavitt, United States of Care

2:00 pm Broadening the Impact of Payment and Care Reforms During COVID-19

Session Objective: Discuss how to encourage and support providers to continue engaging in value-based care reforms.

- Brad Smith, Center for Medicare and Medicaid Innovation
- William Shrank, Humana
- Toyin Ajayi, Cityblock Health

2:25 pm Closing Remarks

2:30 pm Adjournment

This webinar is part of a three-year, collaborative initiative between The Duke-Margolis Center for Health Policy and West Health to advance and accelerate value-based payment reform in the U.S. health care system.