

Duke-Margolis 2024 Annual Health Policy Conference Updating Health Reform for the Next Decade: Key Challenges and New Opportunities

April 11, 2024

12:00 pm – 5:00 pm ET

The Westin Washington, DC Downtown
Hybrid Public Meeting

Background & Objectives:

The 2024 Duke-Margolis Institute's Health Policy Conference focuses on "Updating Health Reform for the Next Decade." Join us as we explore potential long-term strategies to reinvigorate health care and public health in the United States, including:

- Leveraging bipartisan, state-level health policy efforts to drive improvement in access and outcomes
- Advancing public health and health systems collaboration to achieve population-level health goals
- Reaching the potential of artificial intelligence tools in value-based care
- Building data and evidence infrastructure through cross-federal agency efforts and private sector partnerships that support health

Conference Agenda

12:00 pm Welcome & Opening Remarks
Mark McClellan, Duke-Margolis Institute for Health Policy

12:10 pm Session 1: States as Laboratories for Transforming Health Policy and Access:
Learning from North Carolina

Keynote Discussion:

- Secretary Kody Kinsley, North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services
- Senator Thom Tillis (R-NC), United States Senate

Panel Lineup to be Announced

1:10 pm Session 2: Public Health and Health Care as Partners: Building Resilience to Improve Outcomes

Keynote Discussion:

- Director Mandy Cohen, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
- Principal Deputy Administrator and Chief Operating Officer Jon Blum, Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services

Panel Lineup to be Announced

2:15 pm Break

2:30 pm Session 3: Health Data and AI for a Value-Based World

Keynote Discussion:

- Nancy-Ann DeParle, Consonance Capital Partners

Panel Lineup to be Announced

3:30 pm Session 4: Advancing Evidence Development for Biomedical Innovation and Clinical Care

Keynote Discussion:

- Director Monica Bertagnolli, National Institutes of Health

Panel Lineup to be Announced

4:45 pm Concluding Remarks

5:00 pm Adjourn to Reception

6:30 pm Reception Concludes